

ABOUT US

KidZania is one of the fastest growing global educational entertainment brands, with 24 facilities all over the globe from Mexico City to Tokyo to London.

KidZania is an indoor city run by kids! The concept combines inspiration, fun and learning through realistic real-play for children aged between 4 and 14. Kids independently explore a 75,000 square foot kid-sized city with occupation related activities.

Watch the excitement on their faces as they try out activities in the bank, on stage or fighting crime on the streets as a police officer! Each activity at KidZania is developed to teach kids life skills including financial literacy, team work and independence but in a fun and engaging environment.

THE ROLE

The Cleaning Team will ensure the city is clean and tidy at all times, whilst interacting with our visitors throughout the day. Taking pride in the appearance of the city, these roles will involve litter picking, emptying bins, attending to spills and maintaining the cleanliness of the restrooms during the day, as well as keeping the back of house areas clean.

We are looking for individuals who are:

- • Hardworking and have a can-do attitude
